INDEX TO VOLUME 51

1969

SUBJECTS

Agricultural Economics, General

An Aggregate Model of Agriculture —Empirical Estimates and Some Policy Implications, 71
Characteristics and Salaries of Agricultural Economists, 903
Economics of Agricultural Economics (The), 1011
A Few Comments from the Editors —In Response and Otherwise, 702
A Future for "Agricultural Economics"? 1027
International Encyclopedia of the Social Sciences: A Review Article (The), 268
On Institutional Obsolescence and Innovation—Background for Professional Dialogue on Public Policy, 245
Our Journal—A Viewpoint, 701
Role of the Farm Foundation in Agricultural Economics (The), 370
Unseen—and Unfeeling—Hand (The), 952

Agricultural Policy

Theories Explaining the Persistence of Low Resources Returns in a Growing Farm Economy, 798

United States

An Analysis of the 1964 Wheat Option, 100
A Basic Framework for Policy Education, 1357
Government Payments and the Distribution of Income in Agriculture, 1520
Long-Term Versus Short-Term Land Retirement, 1524
Payment Limitations: Effect on Supply Adjustment and Income Distribution, 1233
Payment Limitation: Pros and Cons as Seen by Farm Organizations, 1234
Payment Limitation: The Economic and Political Feasibility, 1237
Pure Theory of Government Aid to Agriculture (The), 1511

Foreign

Some Implications of the EEC's Agricultural Price Policy, 279

Commodities: Supply, Demand, Prices

Livestock and Livestock Products

A New Look at Demand Analysis for Beef: Comment and Reply, 947
An Analysis of Daily Fluctuations in the Hog Economy, 849
Cash-Futures Price Relationships for Live Beef Cattle, 26

Dairy Products

Consumer Attitudes Towards Milk Substitutes, 1149
Consumer Preference for "Imitation" Milk Beverages, 1637
Criteria for Defining Federal Milk Order Market Areas, 1138
Federal Milk Marketing Order Provisions: Effects on Producer Prices and Intermarket Price Relationships, 625
Milk Production and Utilization in the East, 964
Predicting Aggregate Milk Production: An Empirical Study, 642
Pricing Milk in Federal Order Markets, 1506

Field Crops

Caloric Cost of Rice and Wheat Programs, 962
Factors Associated with Variation in the Aggregate Yield of New Zealand Wheat (1918-1967), 866

Fruits and Vegetables

Allocation of Florida Orange Production Among Alternative Product Forms and Market Sectors, 1134
Consumer Knowledge for Sovereignty: Apples, 1247

Other

Note on the U.S. Demand for Coffee, 912
U.S. Import Demand for Green Coffee by Variety: Comment and Reply, 926

Marketing, Storage and Distribution

Allocation of Florida Orange Production Among Alternative Product Forms and Market Sectors, 1134
Cash-Futures Price Relationships for Live Beef Cattle, 26
A Conceptual Framework for Analyzing Economies of Vertical Integration, 834
Conglomerates: Economic Conduct and Performance, 1495
Consumer Knowledge for Sovereignty: Apples, 1247
Consumer Preference for "Imitation" Milk Beverages, 1637
Criteria for Defining Federal Milk Order Market Areas, 1138
Did Futures Trading Influence Potato Prices? 666
Economic Considerations in Rate Making and Rate Structure for Farm Products, 1464
Effect of a Health Hazard "Scare" on Consumer Demand, 676
Effect of a Marketing Order on Winter Carrot Prices: Comment (The), 929
Effect of a Marketing Order on Winter Carrot Prices: Reply (The), 933
Extension Transportation Programs to Improve Marketing Efficiency, 1226
Factors Underlying Business Interests in Conglomerate Mergers, 1482
Firm Conglomeration as a Market Structural Variable, 1488
Food Donation Programs, 934
Hidden Consumer Motives in Supermarket Selection, 1154
Louisville Produce Terminal: Its Changing Trends and Potentials, 1966-1975, 1251
Market Power and Its Sources in the Food Industry, 1
Marketing, Price, and the Theory of Communication, 1110
Mergers and Diversified Growth of Large Grain Firms, 619
A Note on the Measurement of Price Elasticity of Demand, 691
Price Discrimination in the Food Industry: A Competitive Stimulant or Tranquilizer? 1143
Pricing Milk in Federal Order Markets, 1506
Projecting the Size Distribution of Agricultural Firms—An Application of a Markov Process with Non-Stationary Transition Probabilities, 289
Role of Transportation in Agricultural Marketing and Development: Discussion, 1478
Showing a Retailer that Meat Sanitation Pays—An Economic Approach, 1259
Some Thoughts on Bargaining, 960
Toward a Concrete Concept of Effective Competition: Comment, 476
Toward a Concrete Concept of Effective Competition: Reply, 478
Transportation and Regional Development in Agriculture, 1455
Transportation Pricing as a Factor in Commodity Marketing: Montana Wheat, a Case Study, 1471

Consumption

Econometric Study of Monthly Consumption Expenditures in Rural Uttar Pradesh, 119

International Economics and Trade

Converting Price Series of Internationally Traded Commodities to a Common Currency Prior to Estimating National Supply and Demand Equations, 189
New Concepts and Methods in Foreign Trade Negotiations, 1338
Policy and Non-Policy in Foreign Trade: Discussion, 1349
Technology and Neo-Mercantilism in International Agricultural Trade, 1235
Welfare Cost of Alternative Methods of Protecting Raw Wool in the United States (The), 303

Cooperatives and Cooperation

An Analysis of Cooperative Bargaining in the Processing Tomato Industry, 13
Nonproducer Cooperative Interests and the Antitrust Laws, 335
Shadow Prices as Member Returns for a Marketing Cooperative, 818

Economics of Production

General and Theoretical

Economies and Diseconomies of Large-Scale Agriculture, 1274

Estimation of Performance Functions for Budgeting and Simulation Studies, 159

On Defining Uneconomic Regions of the Production Function, 195

Organization of Agriculture (The): Discussion, 1283

Organization of Agriculture (The): An Epilogue, 1289

A Production-Investment Decision Model of Farm Firm Growth, 546

Variants and Invariants in Comparative Agricultural Systems, 1263

Supply Response

A Comparison of the Determinants of Wool Production in the Six Leading Producing Countries: 1949-1965, 138

Factors Associated with Variation in the Aggregate Average Yield of New Zealand Wheat (1918-1967), 866

Positivistic Measures of Aggregate Supply Elasticities: Some New Approaches, 342

Predicting Aggregate Milk Production: An Empirical Study, 642

Reliability of Supply Equations Derived from Production Functions, 170

Representative Farm Approach to Estimation of Supply Response (The), 353

Organization and Management

Agriculture and the Law: Discussion, 1399

Application of Linear Programming to Individual Farm Planning, 1168

Application of the Financial Management Function in the Family Size Farm Firm, 1536

Computer Simulation of the Substitution Between Project Size and Management, 1119

Concentration in Farming and Transition Bias, 1114

A Conceptual Framework for Analyzing Economics of Vertical Integration, 834

A Decision Model for Continuous Sequence Production Processes of Variable Length: An Application to Hog Marketing, 1159

Do Legal and Tax Rules Favor Large-Scale Agricultural Firms? 1381

Economic Feasibility of an Integrated Broiler Operation (The), 1255

An Economic Model for Determining Cotton Allotments and Prices to Maximize Net Farm Income, 1124

Effect of Merchandising Methods on Prices Paid at Cooperative Feeder Cattle Sales, 1129

Family-Operated Farms: Their Compatibility with Technological Advance, 530

Farm Panels as a Source of Farm Management Data: The Cornell Producer Panel, 1206

Farm Panels as a Source of Farm Management Data: The Ohio Plan, 1211

A Game Theoretic Model for Farm Planning under Uncertainty, 1164

Income Tax Planning for Farmers, 1543

Institutions and Instruments—Management Alternatives, 1369

Large Farms and Above Parity Returns: Inseparable of Just Good Friends? 179

Legal-Economic Models as a Tool for Optimizing Intergeneration Property Transfers, 1393

Shifts in Entrepreneurial Functions in Agriculture, 517

Industrial Inputs

Structure of Input Supplying Industries and Techniques of Analysis, 1046

Other

Sources of Agricultural Productivity Gap Among Selected Countries, 564

Farm Finance, Capital, Credit

Concepts of Finance Capital for a Capital-Using Agriculture, 1055

Credit in the Production Organization of the Firm: Comment, 474

Farm Capital and Credit Projections to 1980, 1172

Financial Returns in Agriculture, 662
A Method for Analyzing the Effect of Taxes and Financing on Investment Decisions, 1178
